MANY WINTER GUESTS

UNPRECEDENTED RUSH OF EASTERNERS TO CALIFORNIA COMING SEASON PREDICTED

Prof. A. B. Heacock of 709 East Windsor Road was talking a day or two ago with a friend from Cherokee, Okla., who had been here on a visit and was preparing to go back, sell his property there and move to California. He said: "You people out here seem to think you are crowded now with eastern visitors, but just wait a few weeks and see the difference. I know 20 families in the vicinity of my home town who are getting ready to come out to California for the winter. I know also from letters written me by friends in Iowa, that the same condition prevails there. We have had unexampled prosperity in the central and eastern section of the country for several years past, while things have been pretty dead with you since 1913, I understand. Now the prosperity wave has reached you and in my opinion you'll be overwhelmed with visitors this winter, many of whom will want to remain permanentiy. Better hurry and get some place for them to stay."

WILL BUILD SOME FINE HOUSES IN GLENDALE

Nathan Rigdon, who recently moved to Glendale from San Diego, has bought eight lots between Orange and Central, Doran and Burchett, and will put up some fine houses on them. He has reserved the corner lot facing Central avenue for himself and put up a small rear house in which to live while building a handsome home. He built and sold 175 houses in San Diego the past few years and may duplicate that performance in Glendale.

FROM DESERT TO BLISS

Neal Wells recently wrote his mother, Mrs. P. A. Wells, of 339 W. Harvard, that the Eighth Cavalry, of which he is a member, was on the march from Marfa, Texas, a desert town. 65 miles from the border to Fort Bliss, adjoining El Paso. The distance between the places is 175 miles. They made only 38 miles the first day, because the "chow wagon" of one troop was left behind and they slowed down to wait for it. From 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. this troop had no rations of any kind, so the Captain gave each of the men 50 cents and told him to get something to eat at Valentine, a little town they were near by. They expected to make 50 miles a day from then on, Neal wrote, his letter having been dated at Valentine. The boys were all highly elated at the prospect of staying for a time in the roomy, comfortable barracks at Fort Bliss, where the houses are all of brick and each trooper has a room to himself.

SUDDEN DEATH

PLESS SPEAR DIES IN BAKERSFIELD OF BLOOD POISONING FOLLOWING AN INJURY

The many Glendale friends of Pless Spear were shocked when the news of his sudden death in a Bakersfield hospital was circulated Monday. His boyhood was spent in the southern part of the city where his mother, Mrs. Ellen Spear, still owns a home in San Fernando Court. He has been working in the oil fields and suffered an injury to one of his hands, from a redwood splinter, rusty nail or other agent which brought infection and death by blood poisoning. He was about 25 years of age and his marriage to a Glendale girl was to have taken place in about two weeks. By all who knew him well he was pronounced a fine young man whose passing is a distinct loss to the community. The remains have been brought to the Scovern Parlors in this city and funeral arrangements await the return of Mrs. Spear from Imperial Valley.

Later

L. G. Scovern states that the deceased, William Pless Spear, was a native of Texas and was twenty-four years of age; that he died September 21st at the San Joaquin Hospital in Bakersfield where he had gone for an operation to remove a redwood splinter from his hand. An anaesthetic was given him which caused vomiting in which he ruptured a blood vessel, the resulting hemorrhage causing death.

Funeral services will be held at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Wednesday, at 2 p. m., Rev. Munger officiating.

MOUNTAIN FIRE

CONFLAGRATION STILL RAGES IN PACOIMA CANYON, BUT CABINS HAVE BEEN SAVED

A smell of smoke, ashes sifting through the atmosphere and forming a thin film on the pavement, a black blot upon the northwest horizon through which the setting sun shone with a lurid glow gave unmistakable evidence Monday of the fire raging in beautiful Pacoima Canyon where a number of Glendale families have mountain cabins. Mrs. Chauncey K. Lake, of West Cypress avenue, returned from there Sunday night and reported the stubborn fight that was being put up by large numbers of men to stay the flames but without avail. Mr. Lake has a parking station at the mouth of the canyon and he and Dr. P. O. Lucas own about 120 acres in the canyon which they have improved with cabins and where the doctor and his family have been spending week-ends all summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pelley, Captain Ed Fairfield and Billy Gould of this city have cabins there, and many Los Angeles mountain lovers have also leased from the government and built there, making a colony of about 50 summer homes,

BIRTHDAY RALLY

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS OF FIRST M. E. S. S. ENJOYS FELLOWSHIP, SPEECHES, MELONS

The birthday rally of the Men's Bible Class of the First M. E. Sunday School, held last evening in the social parlors of the church, attracted an attendance of about 60. The principal address was made by C. E. Sweet, for 13 years superintendent of the Methodist Mission in Los Angeles. He told of his work there and cited numbers of people who had been saved, made useful citizens and restored to their families. He had with him a Mr. Dunning, who had been converted in the Mission three years ago. He has a very fine voice and sang several songs for the men. Rev. E. Hoskyn, teacher of the class; L. C. Leeds, Henry Johnston and W. F. Tower also made short talks. The latter, who was chairman of the July, August and September birthday group, closed his address with a cordial invitation to the crowd to partake of 25 watermelons he had secured for the occasion. His announcement was heartily cheered and the invitation instantly accepted. This closed an evening of rare enjoyment to all.

ADVENTIST NOTES

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF OFFICIALS OF PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE

Elder Christian of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists leaves today for Boulder, Colo., to attend the fall council of the General Conference which meets there next month. This meeting is quite an important session as it comes midway between the quadrennial sessions of the General Conference. Elder Christian will be the only representative of the local Conference, but a distinguished delegate whom Glendale claims will be Elder Andross, who is hurrying home from his world tour to be present and report. No recent news has been received from him and it is expected that he is now en route from England to the Atlantic Coast. He will have much to tell of conditions in the mission fields and of the effect upon them of the world war. He is expected to visit the Pacific Coast this winter.

While away Elder Christian will visit Union College at College View, Nebr., and will also take time to see relatives in South Dakota. He will be gone about a month.

C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale Sanitarium, made a brief trip to Oakland last week.

Miss Violet Bell, cashier of the Pacific Union Conference, is away on a vacation.

Elder J. Adams Stevens, Secretary of the Home Missionary Department of the Pacific Union Conference, has gone to Washington, D. C., to attend a home missionary council of such secretaries from the various conferences throughout North America. He plans to be gone about two weeks.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair except cloudy or foggy tonight and in the early morning near the coast.

STEEL STRIKE SITUATION

ORDER PREVAILS IN MOST LOCATITIES AND BOTH SIDES ARE LAYING PIANS FOR A LONG FIGHT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SHARON Pa., Sept. 23.—Steel-strike rioting was resumed this morning in the town of Farrell near here. Several shots were fired and the police said that at least eleven persons were injured

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 23.—Two additional troops of State constabulary are en route in the steel region from Eastern Pennsylvania, according to advices received here.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Rioting which started last night was resumed here this morning, and Michael Murphy, general master mechanic of the Lackawanna Steel Company, was seriously injured. Two arrests were made during the night. Police reserves answered three riot calls.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Reports today indicated that both the steel corporation and its striking employes had settled down for a long fight and that both sides had given up all hope of a quick, decisive victory. The steel corporation is reported to be storing food and bedding in many of its plants and is laying its plans to defend the mills in case of violence.

The strikers are laying their plans for a long fight and perfecting their organization with that plan in view. Early reports received today indicated that the strikers are losing some ground in the smaller ttowns in the Pittsburg district, but that their strengtth is greater than the companies first estimated.

At Gary, Ind., and in the Ohio region most of the mills are closed. Everywhere the strikers are picketing the plants, but order has prevailed except in Farrell and Buffalo.

Some affiliated unions are joining the strike including the Switchmen's Union at Buffalo and Cleveland. The course to be taken by the Great Lakes Sailors' Union is uncertain.

Secretary Foster, of the strikecommittee, reiterated today his estimate that 275,000 men are out. Steel Corporation officials said that not over 75,00 had quit.

TO ASK ACTION TO END STRIKE

APPEAL TO BE ADDRESSED BY STEEL WORKERS TO PRESIDENT WILSON OR JUDGE GARY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PITTSBURG, Sept. 23.—It is expected that the steel workers' general strike committee tomorrow will address an appeal either to President Wilson or Judge Gary, head of the Steel Corporation, claiming that the stteel strike is a success and that there is no need of further crippling of the industry. They will ask for action to end the strike.

SENATE TO INVESTIGATE STEEL STRIKE

INQUIRY BEGINS THURSDAY—JUDGE GARY, HEAD OF STEEL CORPORATION, WILL BE FIRST WITNESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The Senate unanimously passed a resolution today calling for an investigation of the steel strike. The investigation will begin Thursday with Judge Gary, head of the Steel Corporation, as the first witness.

SAN GABRIEL CANYON ABLAZE

WORST FIRE IN THAT DISTRICT IN MANY YEARS NOW RAGING IN ANGELES RESERVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MONROVIA, Cal., Sept. 23.—The worst forest fire in this district for many years is sweeping through San Gabriel Canyon today. The fire is within ten miles of the town of Azusa, but the town itself is not in danger on account of the direction of the wind and the barrier of orange groves between the town and the fire zone. Extreme heat from the flames is felt miles away. A heavy wind is fanning the blaze adding to the difficulties of the fire fighters. Numerous cabins and several bungalows in the canyon have been destroyed and refugees are beginning to arive at Azusa. A call for 200 fire fighters has been filled at Monrovia, Azusa sent an additional one hundred and 200 are leaving from Los Angeles this afternoon. The fire is confined to the timber in the Angelus National Forest.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE KOLCHAK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A Moscow wireless dispatch reports an attempt to assassinate Admiral Kolchak, head of the Russian government at Omsk. A bomb was thrown into the guard room at his headquarters. Six guards were killed and several injured but Admiral Kolchak was unharmed.

MOB TAKES POSSESSION OF TOWN

CUSHING, Okla., Sept. 23.—A mob of 2000 men which gathered overnight from four counties is in control of the town of Drumright, having driven the mayor, chief of police and one policeman out of town during the night. The trouble followed alleged interference by the city government in a strike of telephone workers.

LIBRARY QUARTERS

WILL BE GREATLY ENLARGED BY THE FINISHING OF BASEMENT ROOM FOR JUVENILES

The new basement room for the juvenile department at the City Library on Harvard street for which T. H. Addison has the contract is finished as far as walls are concerned and now awaits a cement floor. When that is laid window and door frames can be placed and the quarters finished up in short order. It will add so much to the comfort and convenience of the library that Mrs. Danford is eager to have it completed. It is a rectangular room as long as the width of the building and half its depth. Many windows make it light and airy and the transfer of juvenile books, magazines and furnishings will greatly relieve the congestion upstairs and make it possible to reserve one side for reference work only. The basement will also provide new light, commodious quarters for the library class to use as a workroom and the room they have heretofore used will be converted into a rest room for the general public. Other plans are simmering which if carried out will increase the service the library is rendering, but it would be premature to announce them now.

FAREWELL SHOWER

MISS TAYLOR HONORED BY FRIENDS ON EVE OF DEPARTURE FOR HOLLYWOOD

A very pleasant, social affair was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Boyd McKinley on North Louise street. It was a farewell for Miss Ardelle Taylor, who is leaving Glendale to make her home in Hollywood. Games and music were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served to the guests who were gathered around a prettily-appointed table centered with carnations and ferns. The guest of honor was the recipient of quite a shower of pretty gifts to serve as remembrances from her friends. The ladies who enjoyed the affair were: Misses Ardelle Taylor, Myrtle Ogier, Ruth Sunkes, Tessa Bott, Irene Riley, Hazel and Edna Colton, Esther Flanders, Emma, Louise and Celine Moniot, Genevieve Doremus, Louise Lambermont, Sybil Roake, Gladys Spangler, Martha Eichenhoffer, and Mrs. Boyd McKinley.

ATTORNEY BAKER AND FAMILY RETURN

Attorney and Mrs. Frederick Baker and their son Frederick, Jr., returned Monday night from Avalon, where they have a very attractive summer home which they have been occupying for several weeks. While there Mrs. Baker entertained groups of friends from Azusa, San Fernando and Glendale. She states that her son is to enter Woodbury College the first of October and that he will assist in his father's office afternoons. While they greatly enjoyed Catalina they are glad to be at home in Glendale once more and feel at ease about their island property as it has been leased to an excellent tenant who desires to occupy it until next June.

CONSIDER LOCAL "Y"

COMMITTEE MEETS TO WORK OUT PLANS FOR DISTRICT SYSTEM

A meeting of representatives of the religious and educational forces of Glendale and vicinity was held last evening at the home of Hartley Shaw, 212 West Park avenue, to consider taking up the county Y. M. C. A. work. R. P. Anderson, county secretary, explained the method now in vogue in Orange, Ventura, San Bernardino, Fresno, Tulare and Los Angeles counties, that of dividing each county into groups for the work. For instance, the Glendale group would consist of Eagle Rock, Glendale, Burbank, Sunland, La Crescenta and La Canada, with the communities surrounding them. This city would be the center, where the assistant to the county secretary would have his office. Meetings for Bible study and other Y. M. C. A. work would be held in schoolhouses and churches and efforts be made to enroll all the young men of the district in the work. Mr. Anderson explained that it had been found after long years of experimenting that it rarely paid to try to establish a regular Y. M. C. A. branch, with build-

HOME FROM CANADA

MRS. A. R. OLIVER RETURNS FROM MONTH'S VISIT WITH RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

Mrs. Arthur R. Oliver of 1120 N. Louise, the beloved and greatly missed wife of the High School teacher, returned from her eastern trip last Friday, after an absence of about a month. Her husband frankly declares that without her he is a ship without a rudder, a star without a sun, a helpless and despondent mortal and that never again will he let her go without him. She reports that the weather at Buffalo and across the line in Canada where she visited was wet most of the time, that it rained nearly every day of her stay, but she had a pleasant time nevertheless and met relatives she had not seen for 26 years. She found Canadians still under the ban as regards sugar and butter, and says the stuff which is flattered by the name of butter does not begin to be as good as our oleomargarine. When Mrs. Oliver told them of the good things to be had in California they agreed we had much to be thankful for. She found the war losses much more severe there than here. In her home town of about 2000 people there are 83 war widows. She was fortunate in having lost no relatives that way, though one nephew was badly disfigured by war bullets.

J. M. FIFE IN NEW JOB

J. Morgan Fife, who sold his pastry, cheese and candy route to C. C. Norton a few weeks ago and has since been taking an enforced vacation with a severe attack of lumbago as an unwelcome partner, went to work Monday morning with G. E. Daley, who is in charge of the flood control work in Verdugo Wash, as timekeeper.

THOSE ALIENS

Authorities say that the ports of Europe are thronged with immigrants eager to come to this country, but that most of these are undesirables, seeking to dodge the burdens of their own people and likely to foment trouble if allowed to come here. For this reason greater restriction of immigration is urged.

Badly as America needs labor, there is more need of a protective immigration policy if the abuses of America's hospitality are not to go on.

The first step in such a policy is the sifting of these people in their own countries, through the establishment of bureaus in the great centers abroad which shall examine every applicant for immigration to America so carefully as to prevent the questionable from even heading this way.

The next step is a better handling of the situation here. Ex-Mayor Ole Hanson of Seattle, who has had some strenuous experiences with alien pouplations, thinks there should be such a distribution of immigrants when they arrive here as will prevent the formation of large racial settlements. This is easier said than done. The natural trend of any human being is toward his kind. Even if separated originally they will tend to get together, and the prevention of this leads to big questions of right and of restraint.

Probably a better solution is more vigorous Americanization work right in these foreign settlements. The alien is not the only one who does not mix. What of his American host who handles him with tongs because he is an alien, instead of grasping him by the hand as an embryo American? Who calls him "Guinea," "Wop," and "Hunky," and exploits him to the limit? The immigrant will cling to his old nationality until somebody shows him a better one.

Get only the good ones here and make them glad they came. Then, if in spite of all efforts, they remain obnoxiously alien, send them home.—Sandusky, O., Register.

WORLD DEVELOPING SEA POWER

Picturing naval development from the galley to the day of the dreadnaught, Britain's five mile pageant on the Thames must have stirred in spectators new appreciation of contemporary achievement and wonder what the future may hold in store. Sight of the gorgeous royal barge, built more than 200 years ago for King William and Queen Mary, when the river was a main highway for travel within the realm, could not but tax the mind to comprehend the recent age which knew no fast steamships, railways, motor cars or airplanes, in which the sailing vessel was supreme on water and the horse on land. And the fleet carrying one of the primitive guns used against the Spanish armada, one of the larger weapons of Nelson's period, and both dwarfed in the shadow of a monster 18-inch gun of the great war, must have inflamed imagination.

From the dawn of historic record men are known to have fought on the seas, yet most of the revolutionary changes in ship construction and weapons have been of comparatively recent origin. The Egyptians had fleets 300 years before Christ, although they were not essentially a sea-faring people. It was for the Phoenicians to develop the galley, with its beak for ramming, its means for grappling, and machines for hurling stones, darts and other missiles. And it was not until the middle of the fourteenth century of the Christian era that these methods of fighting were greatly altered by the introduction of the heavy gun, which marked the beginning—elementary indeed—of long range engagements. As late as the war of 1812 hand-to-hand engagements between ships lashed with grappling irons are recorded. The shell gun, produced as late as 1825, made necessary protection of warships in heavy armor, and it was not until after the Crimean war that armoured ships became the rule.

In the meantime the development of motive power waited equally long for the touch of modern thought. The supremacy of the sailing vessel was established only at the battle of Lepanto, in 1571, when Don Juan and his allied fleets—the most modern known to that time—routed the Turks of Ali Pasha and freed thousands of Christian galley slaves. And the introduction of steam came in the last century when Fulton completed, in 1815, the Demologos for the United States navy.

It is a far cry from the galley to the dreadnaught, but the span in time is brief. The advancement in navigation has been greater in the last century and a half than in the previous thousand years; greater in the past fifty years than in the previous 200, and greater in the past decade than in any previous equal span. The world is moving with accelerating speed; only a few generations separate us from an era of transportation amazingly primitive.

Jack Williams, otherwise the Human Fly, so titled from the fact that he climbs up the sides of tall buildings much like the well-known suction-footed fly, will climb the First National Bank building or the telephone building tonight; also he will climb to the top of the flag pole across from the First National Bank tonight at seven o'clock.

Williams is the same man who last winter climbed the Marsh-Strong building in Los Angeles and is the Original Human Fly. He has been climbing up and down the sides of tall buildings for the past eight years and so far without an accident. He is the same man who on May 11, 1911, climbed from the bottom to the top of the Woolworth Building in New York City, which is 55 stories and over seven hundred feet high. Last week Williams climbed around an aeroplane while in flight in Long Beach, just to prove that he can climb anything.

Williams is being brought to Glendale by the Packer & White Auto Co., distributors for the Studebaker cars. The Studebaker factory presented Williams with one of their New Model Big Sixes and he uses it to travel in.

One of the most unusual things about the Human Fly are his hands and feet. He can hold a raw potato in his hand and squeeze it to a pulp in his long, wiry fingers and the slightest indentation furnishes him with plenty of hand hold to climb on. Tonight, using nothing but his hands and feet, he will climb from the sidewalk to the top of the building over the cornice and all.

Williams has been performing in nearby cities lately and he is considered by press and public as America's Greatest Dare Devil, so if you want to see him in action be in front of the First National Bank tonight at seven o'clock.

Members of the Foothill Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Mary J. Oliver at her pleasant home at 1314 North Central avenue last Friday afternoon. A charming program of songs was provided by her daughter, Miss Marie Oliver, who has a sweet soprano voice. The balance of the afternoon was given to general social enjoyment and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, the dining room and parlors being decorated with roses in a variety of colors.

INCREASE IN CITY SCHOOLS

Reports which have been turned in to the office of the Superintendent by the principals of the various city schools show that on Friday last, Sept. 19th, the total enrollment of the grade schools was 1836 against 1736 on Sept. 20, 1918, and 1357 September 21, 1917. This shows a gain of something over 35 per cent in the past two years.

URGING RETURN OF SOLDIER SONS

Mrs. M. Perry, mother of Charles A. and Walter Perry, of 111 North Louise St., Glendale, is one of a committee of three women appointed to receive contributions in the campaign being waged by the "Mothers of Sons in Siberia," to urge upon the President and Congress the immediate return of the 3000 California soldiers in Russia and Siberia. A petition to that effect signed by 25,000 citizens of Los Angeles and vicinity has already been taken to Washington to be laid before the authorities. Mrs. Perry is in San Francisco, where she has stirred up the mothers to join in the demand for the return of their sons. Her own son, Walter Perry, is one of these boys.

CHAPTER L RESUMES

The first meeting of its new year will be held by Chapter L of the P. E. O. at the home of Mrs. Dickman, 632 East Harvard street, Wednesday, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Genevieve Goss will have charge of the program.

COMMUNITY SING

The Community Sing will be held Thursday evening in the High School auditorium. All who are interested in the sing and want it continued are asked to be present Thursday evening and pay up their pledges. The matter must be decided now whether or not we are to have a Community Sing this season. Let us see where you stand. Money talks in a case of this kind.

CARD OF THANKS

Words cannot express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their comforting words and acts of sympathy and for the beautiful floral tributes of respect in the hour of our deepest sorrow and bereavement.

We especially thank the members of Glen Eyrie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, for the beautiful and impressive service extended to our wife and mother at her funeral and last resting place.

Personals

Howard Walker and wife of Santa Ana drove up Saturday night and spent Sunday with relatives and friends in Glendale.

Mrs. Charles Parker of North Orange street was hostess last Friday to the Midsummer Bridge Club. It is to be reorganized and given a suitable name.

A fire broke out in Griffith Park Sunday afternoon in the aviation field, but fighters rallied and it was extinguished before it made much headway.

Mrs. Sophia Porter of East Harvard street is visiting her son and his family in Riverside. She is having a very nice time and does not know when she will be ready to come home.

Patroness for the Columbus Club dance, to be held Friday evening at the Masonic Temple, are Mesdames Peter L. Ferry, H. M. Doll, James Mullen, A. R. Townsend, John Quinn, J. H. Mellish, Frank Salmacia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Roach, former residents of Glendale, who are now living in Los Angeles on Avenue Twenty-Eight, were Sunday guests of their son, G. D. Roach, and Mrs. Roach, at 328 West Lomita avenue.

Mrs. E. D. Baker, of 311 West Colorado street, is expected home from the Angel City before long with her baby daughter, born last week in a Los Angeles hospital.

Mrs. Rhodora Plannette of 307 North Kenwood street expects to dispose of her home in this city and move to Hollywood, which will be a more convenient location for her and for her daughter.

J. Morgan Fife and family and Mrs. Mabel Rhodes, Mr. Fife's sister of Houston, Pa., spent Sunday at Ontario as the guests of Mrs. W. M. Moore. Mrs. Rhodes will spend several days with Mrs. Moore. They were old schoolmates years ago in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Walter Jones, of Vine street, is entertaining at luncheon Friday the ladies who took part in the minstrel show recently given at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson. Covers will be laid for about eighteen and the guest list will include the business manager, the press manager and Mrs. Richardson.

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue were host and hostess at an old-fashioned chicken dinner Sunday at which relatives were entertained, covers being laid for Mrs. Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. Linkogel and children. Mrs. Tuck has been advised by her husband that he will join her October 2d prepared to make his permanent home in Southern California.

Charles D. Shattuck, with the Pulliam Undertaking Company, has some pictures sent him by Emil Keifer, seaman on board the U. S. S. Kentucky, which has recently sailed from Havana, Cuba, to Philadelphia. One of the pictures shows him surrounded by four pickaninnies, black as the ace of spades, and sporting one scanty garment each. Emil hopes to get his discharge soon and return to Glendale.

Orval Bell did not make the trade of his home at 414 Vine street for a ranch as he had intended, fearing that he and his wife, mother and nephew would be without a home, as the ranch they were bargaining for was leased for some time ahead. Orval has gone back to his job at the basket factory and his nephew, Eddie Brown, who lives with him, is a messenger boy for the Western Union.

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue had the pleasure of entertaining during the past week their sister-in-law, Mrs. Allen, who formerly resided in Santa Ana but is now living in Beaumont. It will be remembered that Mrs. Allen was critically ill of influenza last winter and nearly lost her life. She was left in a weakened condition and a change of climate to Beaumont was decided upon in the hope that it would benefit her health. The Hogues report that she looks fine, is gaining in weight, and appearances indicate that the prescription is working.

Miss Evelyn Berger of 403 East Lomita avenue came home Sunday from two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. Smith, in Anaheim. She attended the great reception at Orange County Park for the soldiers, sailors and marines who went from Orange county and says the souvenirs given the boys were very beautiful. A pleasant occurrence of her stay in Anaheim was the arrival from Bakersfield of her uncle, Clarence Berger, who had just received his discharge, to claim his bride, an Anaheim girl. His mother, Mrs. C. Berger, and sister, Miss Goldie, accompanied him. They, with the newly married couple, came to Glendale Monday to visit with the family of Clarence's brother, Claude, of 403 East Lomita avenue.

J. L. Anderson and wife of 128 S. Maryland leave this week for Pittsburg, Pa., for a year.

The Wednesday Club, which suspended its meetings for a time, will resume its sessions on Wednesday of the present week and will be entertained by Mrs. Marie Viohl of 446 West Colorado street.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell expect their niece, Miss Margaret Mitchell, daughter of George Mitchell, to arrive today from Wyoming. She is to be a student at Marlborough School for Girls in Los Angeles and will be the guest of the Mitchells until her parents arrive in November.

A $15,000 HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Joseph are so pleased with the progress that is being made in the construction of their beautiful new home that they are planning to entertain the workmen with a fine Dutch supper.

Mr. Joseph explains that the discrepancy between the sum of $15,000, which was given in a recent issue of the Evening News as the cost of the house and the amount given in the building permit is due to the fact that he is to furnish all wall paper, interior decorations, electric fixtures, electric heating wires, shades and many other features. Mr. Joseph says solid mahogany was decided on as the finish for three large rooms after the contract was let and this with added features promises to bring the entire cost well over $15,000. He gives out information that he has already had a handsome offer for his new home but refuses to sell.

HARD TIMES PARTY

The hard times party of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of the Glendale Presbyterian Sunday School held Friday evening, was pronounced a brilliant social success by all who were able to enjoy it. Guests were arrayed in worn, old-fashioned costumes and prizes were given for the most effective costumes carrying out the hard times idea. Helen Engle won the girls' prize, a rubber doll, and Kenneth Wilde the boys' prize—a little soap kewpie. Games and a general social good time filled the evening and refreshments were served at its close by the entertainment committee. Guests were: Misses Inez Harrison, Elizabeth Edmonds, Mabel Prendeville, Eleanor Foster, Martha Eilers, Margaret West, Margaret Fife, Louise Hart, Louise Dare, Helen Hesse, Helen Engle, Agnes Tupper, Evelyn Prendeville, Connie Domsler, Phyllis Baker, Hope Ireland, Alma Engle, Mary Simpson, and Messrs. Edward Smith, Kenneth Wilde, Paul Edwards, Charles DuBois, John Simpson, David Lynd, Thomas McClellan, Stephen Fairchild.

LEAVING FOR DALLAS

Glendale is to lose Miss Alice Frank and it will be quite a serious loss as she is a talented young woman who has always been ready to give efficient help to every civic enterprise for the general good. She is leaving Saturday for Dallas, Tex., where she will join her old friend and business partner, Miss Murphy. That lady, who was formerly associated with Miss Frank in conducting the Egan Branch School in Glendale, is now affiliated with an Academy of Music in Dallas which commands an exclusive and fashionable patronage. She controls the dancing department and desires Miss Frank's assistance as registrar and also as a teacher of French, which is much in request. Much wealth has accumulated in Dallas through the development of the oil fields. The people are free spenders and finishing schools are in demand. While she will miss her Glendale friends and the pleasant climate of Southern California, there is every prospect that Miss Frank will find a very pleasant social life in her new field and she is therefore leaving with pleasant anticipations.

MUTUAL BENEFIT READING CIRCLE RECONVENES

The Mutual Benefit Reading Circle, which reconvened last Wednesday, was well attended. Much business was transacted and splendid plans made for this fall's work.

The reading of Dorothy Canfield Fisher's book, "A Montessori Mother," was resumed and much helpful discussion of the similarities and differences between the kindergarten and Montessori Methods was brought forth. Two facts are self-evident, namely, that the amplifications of Froebel's system are apparent in all modern educational theory and practice, and that every striking feature of Dr. Montessori's school may be traced to a reverence for the child's personality which causes her to demand for it opportunity for self-expression through free self-activity.

The Circle is planning an "Early Members' Day" for some time in October. All former members are to be invited.

CITY UNION MEETS

A large number of ladies gathered at the pleasant home of Mrs. A. K. Crawford at 301 North Cedar street for the regular meeting of the City W. C. T. U. last Friday afternoon. Mrs. I. H. Ford conducted the devotional exercises and presided at the piano. Mrs. Mary O. Ross, of Kansas City, who was a close friend of Carrie Nation, was present and gave interesting bits of history of the temperance work in Kansas in early days. She it was who fitted and furnished the large home given to Mrs. Nation to be a home for drunkards' wives and children. When Kansas went dry and there were no drunkards for whose wives and children provision was needed, it was turned into a rest home for old ladies.

Mrs. Mottern, recently returned from the east, gave incidents of her travels and an account of a W. C. T. U. meeting she attended in Pennsylvania. One circumstance which greatly impressed her was her meeting with a soldier from overseas who testified he had never drank a drop of wine nor smoked a cigarette during his entire stay there, thus proving that those things were not necessities to our fighting men.

Mrs. Sarah Thomas, assistant "Key-Woman" of the local jubilee campaign, gave an enthusiastic description of the jubilee plan and her own methods of increasing the membership quota. She announced that the national W. C. T. U. has undertaken to raise a million dollars and secure a million members to celebrate their fiftieth year jubilee in 1924, and that the Southern California organization is attempting to double its quota of $16,,100, making it $32,200, one-half of which will go to the national organization, the other fifty per cent to the state fund. The president supplemented her statements by saying that $300,000 of the million to be raised will be devoted to the prohibition campaign in foreign lands, and $250,000 to Americanization work among foreigners in this country. She also said that $150,000 would be expended for child welfare work, anti-narcotics, health and morality, etc.

The association voted to place subscriptions for the "Union Signal" for both Glendale libraries, and plans were made for contributing money and clothing for the storm sufferers in Texas in response to the call sent out by Mrs. Smith through the Glendale Evening News. Mrs. David Francy, Superintendent of Soldiers and Sailors, and Mrs. Cora Pettit, Superintendent of Relief Work, were named as a committee to receive contributions.

The annual picnic of the Union, postponed from August 29th, will be held at La Ramada, Friday, September 26th, the ladies assembling there at 10 a. m. Members are requested to bring their lunches and table utensils, and to invite their friends.

Mrs. Wright of Sacramento was a guest of honor at the meeting.

PRICES IN 1897

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett has just run across a price list sent to patrons by a Chicago grocery house February 11, 1897, which makes interesting reading when compared with present-day prices for the same commodities. It reads as follows:

"We have just received a consignment of very fine creamery butter at 20c per pound; Pillsbury and Washburn flour, 58c for one-eighth of a barrel; Armour's lard, 5c per pound; buckwheat flour, 2c per pound; hand-picked navy beans, 3c per quart; the finest potatoes you ever tasted at 30c a bushel; fancy coffee, 20c per pound; oranges, 12½c per dozen; 3-pound cans of tomatoes, 6c; 2-pound cans of corn, 5c; 3-pound can peaches, 12½c; pork loins, 6c per pound; Kirk's soap, 4½c per bar; American Family Soap, 4½c. Poultry sold at rock bottom prices. However, wages were less than half what they are today.

THE CALL of the Out-of-Doors

Beginning Sunday, September 28, our store will be closed on Sunday afternoon from one to five. We are sure our customers will accommodate themselves to this change so that we and our clerks may do what we have been urging others to do—get out in the air and sunshine and take pictures of the things we see and enjoy.

These autumn days are the most pleasant of all the year. Between the heat of summer and the winter's cold there is a delightful interval when the days seem perfect and the out-of-doors calls.

This is the time to provide yourself with a kodak and plenty of films and hie to your favorite mountain resort or seek out some nook along the seashore and while away the lazy hours, bringing home with you snap shots of nature's beauties and of your companions on the journey.

We sell kodaks and we have a variety of sizes in both the folding and box styles. We will instruct you in the use of the kodak you purchase from us and advise you until you are satisfied.

WE sell and develop films and have a large stock of Albums.

which have brought much joy to their owners. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Lake was advised that the fire was sweeping towards the mouth of the canyon and it seemed impossible that anything would survive the flames. The fighting force was increased to 250 men and these worked to preserve the cabins by back firing. Impossible as their task seemed, they succeeded in saving the majority and much of the big timber also remains. The brush covering has all been burned away and trails have been obliterated by dirt slides caused by expansion due to terrific heat. The interior of the canyon was black as midnight and the flames leaped fifty feet in the air. The glow of the conflagration persisted all night and all hope of checking it until it naturally exhausts itself has been abandoned. The mouth of the canyon is about four miles from Newhall and the fire will be likely to travel from there towards Newhall. At the other end it will go over the ridge towards Little Tujunga and Lopez Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mitchell have a cabin in Trail Canyon, a branch of the Big Tujunga, but believe the fire will not reach their site.

It is pronounced the worst mountain blaze that has been experienced in this section in many years, but if the timber is spared its ravages will be repaired in a few years, for the brush cover will spring up more vigorous than ever. Fighting its advance is terrifically exhausting work as no water is available and shoveling dirt over the embers is about the only means that can be employed to check its spread. Even then roots burn underground and carry the fire to distant points where it breaks out afresh after it has been under temporary control.

ing, gymnasium and regular paraphernalia, in cities of less than 20,000 to 25,000 population and that the group plan under the county secretary's supervision was the only logical method for smaller cities. Mr. Anderson spoke at considerable length, so as to make all plain to his hearers. Mr. Griffith, the only assistant secretary now working in Los Angeles county, he being in charge of the Eastern group, comprising Pomona, Upland, San Dimas, Azusa, Glendora and other small cities in that region, told of his work and the success he is meeting with. Other speakers were Prof. Hayden of Citrus Union High School, Prof. Carrigan of Burbank High, Mr. Billheimer of San Dimas, chairman of the eastern Y. M. C. A. group of Los Angeles county, W. D. McRae of Glendale, State Secretary of county work, a young Mr. Shields, president of the Student Body of Citrus Union High, and one of the Occidental teachers, all spoke informatively on the subject and Revs. Edmonds and Scott, C. W. Ingledue and Hartley Shaw voiced approval of the project. Mr. Anderson and Prof. Harry L. Howe are to consult together to decide on calling a meeting for some night next week to go further into the matter.

One of the things that make it possible for the Human Fly to climb is the fact that he can stretch his body from 5 ft. 5 in. to 6 ft. 6 in.; while you watch him he will demonstrate this development at the Palace Grand Theater tonight following his climb in connection with the regular picture program.
